A Corporation's Loss.

The Michigan Central railroad has sued the following letter:
SENERAL MANAGER'S OFFICE,
BURGIT, MICH., MARCH 19, 1883.
Dr. D. O. Garrand, surgeon-in-chief of this company died at Detroit, Sunday, March 18th, 1883.

He employed the high qualities of his heart and mind in the duties of the important and responsible position which he held. Eminently skillful in his profession, his genial nature, and tender sympathy with the suffering won for him the respect and love of all with whom he came in contact. with whom he came in contact.

In his death the company loses an esteemed and faithful officer, and his associates a cherished friend. By order of the president, H. B. LEDYARD, Major Twombly Dr. Farrand's father-in-law, is now in Michigan on a visit to his bereaved daughter who may possibly return with him to our city.

Mammoth Establishment. Mammoth Establishment.

Among retail grocery men west, north and south of our city, the name of Joseph H. Brown is becoming more and more familiar. Having been established here for quite a number of years, and having grown with the growth of the city, his house has been for some time the acknowledged head-quarters for everything in the grocery line. During all this period he has sustained a merited reputation for liberality and fair dealing which has secured for him a name and place among grocery men that guarantees for him a yet greater measure of success is the future. Mr. Brown underis the future. Mr. Brown understands his business thoroughly, is a close buyer and buys exclusively from packers, importers and manufacturers, at the lowest cash prices, ships in ear load lots entirely, and is prepared to give and does give his customers the benefit of his advantages. As evidence of the justice of these claims the business of this house is daily increasing notwithstanding it has already attained proportions rivaling the business of jobbing houses in some of our Eastern cities. Mr. Brown is perfectly familcities. Mr. Brown is perfectly familiar with everything pertaining to the trade and pursues his business with an energy, forethought and activity which could not fail of success in any undertaking, and we wish for him the continued prosperity he so justly
